

To Mistress Alisha Kotlis

~ Atharva Rewatkar

Inspired by:– "The Garlande of Laurell"
by John Skelton

Alisha Kotlis
As a morning red-rose Gentle as a canary
or eagle of the Grandiose.

With solace and gladness much mirth and no madness
all good and no badness

So serenely
So sublimely
So beautifully
So maidenly
So Womanly

Her demeaning in everything Far, far passing that I can indite
or suffice to write
of Alisha Kotlis

As a morning red-rose Gentle as a canary
or eagle of the Grandiose

A damsel in distress openin' closin' her beauteous tress Starring constantly at her dress in haste cloaked in kindness

As patient and still and as full of good will as fair Isaphill

Idea from:– (The Garlande of Laurell)
by John Skelton)

Coriander
Sweet Pomander
Good Cassander
Steadfast of thoughts
well made well wrought For may be sought

Idea from:– (The Garlande of Laurell)
by John Skelton)

Ere that ye can find so courteous, so kind as Misses Alisha Kotlis
a Morning red-rose Gentle as a canary
or Eagle of the grandiose....

Idea from:– (The Garlande of Laurell)
by John Skelton)
