

Song of Love

Atharva Rewatkar

Should I sing a song about this serendipity ?
Or think about getting along embracing thy love and vanity ?

O Lord! Let Blessings be upon my Destiny that made it happen.
Like a couple of Swan living with a love that deepen .

Drenched in your love lies my soul inundated.

Hovering over the clouds above lies my fervour; united & segregated

Hiraeth is what I suffer from and a Kalopsia of Life when our lives entwined from the liveliness, love and strife

Seems that distances affect the closeness in a relation?
But what eyes may affect at times can also be an illusion.

O love ! What's stopping you from conversing with me Get those stigmas dropping to traverse heavens with me.
